

SUSANNA SGREVI
MEMBER OF THE BOARD OF AUDITORS

Susanna Sgrevi, was born in Arezzo in 1969, she gained a degree in Business and Economics at the 'University of Florence, she is a member of the register of Chartered Accountants and Registered Auditors. She was an insolvency administrator for the Arezzo court until 2014. She has been a teacher of Business Law and Political Economics at private schools as well as teaching tax law in vocational course institutions. She is a consultant and offers professional services in financial planning and management. She carries out management control and economic and financial assessment services. She is a consultant in corporate and tax laws, administrative and fiscal compliance, drawing up of financial statements, extraordinary operations and assessment of enterprises, management crisis and insolvency procedures. She is a member of several Boards of Auditors – among which Monnalisa spa, Jafin and Jafin Due.