

ALESSANDRA PEDERZOLI
SUPERVISORY BOARD
AUDITOR

Alessandra Pederzoli graduated in Economics and Business with a Master's in Tax Law and Practice from the University of Modena. She has held numerous teaching positions, including as visiting professor at the Faculty of Communication Sciences and Economics at the University of Modena and Reggio Emilia. She sat on the public tender evaluation commission at the Reggio Emilia Chamber of Commerce, and was a member of the economic research commission. She has held a number of professional positions at public entities, non-profit organisations and listed companies. Among her ordinary activities she has carried out corporate tax and financial statement consultancy, legal audits, supervisory and tax opinion activities, and has published in specialised journals. Her extraordinary activities include preparation of creditors' agreements, company evaluations and appraisals. She is enrolled on the Rome Register of Journalists and the Register of Legal Auditors and Experts at the Court of Modena.