

ALBERTO SODINI

Statutory Auditor

Alberto Sodini was born in 1966 in Rome.

He graduated in economics and commerce and is registered in the Rome Register of Chartered Accountants under number AA_006906 and in the Register of Auditors under number 119434.

He operates professionally as the owner of Studio Tributario Sodini and serves as a standing auditor and member of the supervisory body for capital companies, including publicly traded holdings and consortium companies.

He provides tax and corporate consultancy, tax litigation, company valuations, extraordinary transactions, corporate and tax due diligence, transfer pricing, acts as a court-appointed expert for the Rome court, and offers technical consultancy.

He has been involved in corporate debt restructuring plans. He holds various corporate roles in different companies such as chairman of the board of statutory auditors, standing auditor, member of supervisory bodies, administrative roles, legal auditor, and deputy auditor. Currently he is the auditor for Monnalisa S.p.A., having previously served as the deputy auditor and member of the Supervisory Board.